WONDER if the "steal" portraits of TOM CAMPBELL which are being distributed throughout Kentucky were paid for out of that $100,000 corruption fund.

THE production of silver in the United States in 1899 was 57,700,000 ounces, as compared with 54,590,000 in 1898 and 53,860,000 in 1897. This was a considerable increase in production, with no advance in price to stimulate it.

MR. BRYAN may later on claim that his privilege of heading the Kansas City ticket and dictating the platform should give to him the right to name his running mate. He could do all this in order to emphasize his well-known opposition to bossism.

BISHOP POTTER willingly and manfully acknowledges he was wrong in his opposition to Expansion. The opinion of the man who has the courage to admit his errors is much more valuable than that of the person who stubbornly sticks to a mistake.

THE HON. JAMES K. JONES, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, declares that he is no longer connected with the round bale trust. Like the Hon. MOSE WETMORE, Chairman JONES secured the right to denounce Trusts by selling out to one at a handsome profit.

THE voters of South Dakota have an opportunity this year which rarely comes to such a young state. The retirement of the Hon. RICHARD GRUMBING PETTIGREW, under an avalanche of ballots, will be a fine testimonial to the intelligence and patriotism of South Dakota.

GOEBELISM has driven all the leading Democrats out of a once great and honored party, and its affairs have now been entrusted to TOM CAMPBELL and JUSTUS GOEBEL, a couple of Ohio-New-York-Arizona Republicans. How have the mighty fallen into a deep, dark hole!

We hear a good deal nowadays in regard to the capacity of the Anglo-Saxon race for self-government. If we may judge from recent legislative proceedings a Rope of Sand? and recent judicial decisions, this peculiar racial gift or endowment proceeds wholly from an incapacity to detect a flagrant violation of fundamental laws when accomplished by legal indirection and chicanery. In other words, when the Anglo-Saxon race—in Kentucky, for example,—is crushingly sat down upon, it is not supposed to know it; or, if knowing it, not to regard it at all, if done under the forms of law. If a legislative committee be selected by a clever manipulation of the laws of chance, or a spoiled nursing be accidentally dropped into the gubernatorial chair by the law of political gravitation—the wisecracks of the Courts straightway assure us that the result is in strict accordance with law,—that the partisan thimble-rigger is quite within his legislative rights, and that the political nursing may sit all over the state, provided his functions are under proper surveillance and control.

But this is quite a mistake. The Anglo-Saxon enjoys political freedom because he fought for it; and he owes his capacity for self-government to a traditional exercise of courage and common sense. The same acuteness that he carries into a business transaction, he carries into the government of a state. He sees quite through the solemn hypocrisies of a weak, or reckless, or cowardly, or corrupt judiciary, and with or without "confession," the miserable offender upon the bench will ultimately be called to answer for his offense. From the judiciary of a state, the people have little to expect; but when the FEDERAL JUDICIARY shall prove false to its high duties, not only our Federal system, but republicanism itself, will disappear in a chaotic clash of sovereign states.

Nearly every person needs a tonic medicine at this time of year to brace up and invigorate the nervous system, to cleanse the bowels, liver and kidneys. Herbine is the best and safest remedy to do this, as it will cure constipation, regulate the liver and enrich the blood. Price, 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

A Testimonial from Old England.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. "It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Drugists.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, and a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup used in time is worth a staff of physicians with a drug store and two included. Price, 25 and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

If you know an item kindly tell us about it. Every day we tell you what we know. Every day we know that you know things that we don't know. And we know that you know that we don't know it, and still you don't tell us. Now, if you tell us what you know then we'll tell what we know and also what you know, and then our readers will know what they know and what we know and also what you know, and what we know that you know we know you know.

NEWS IN KENTUCKY.

JIM HOWARD IS READY.

He Sends Word That He Will Gladly Go With Any Officer Serving a Warrant on Him.

Frankfort, Ky., April 13.—The report that it would take one thousand men to arrest Jim Howard, of Clay county, who is said to have fired the shot that killed Gov. Goebel, was denied Monday by Dr. H. B. Phillips, a prominent citizen of Clay county. Dr. Phillips arrived here Monday morning and announced that he had seen Howard and had a long talk with him. Howard, he says, told him that whenever a warrant was issued for his arrest he would gladly go with the officer serving it, and would not attempt to dodge or resist the law in any way. Howard is in Clay county at his home, and told Dr. Phillips to inform any officer with a warrant for his arrest where to find him.

QUIET AT MIDDLESBORO.

Sheriff Broughton Has Taken Several Prisoners to Pineville for Safe-Keeping.

Middlesboro, Ky., April 10.—Everything was quiet here Monday. Sheriff Broughton has taken several prisoners to Pineville for safe-keeping. Chief of Police King has not yet shown up, and it is not known where he is. A number of special deputy sheriffs are on duty, and the republicans say they will be kept as long as they are needed. The democratic council has sworn in additional police, but the old force is now performing its duty unmolested. The general opinion is that there will be no further trouble. Deputy Sheriff Charles Cecil, who was shot Saturday night, has suffered the amputation of a leg.

TROUBLE AT BARBOURSVILLE.

A Question as to Who Is the Judge of Circuit Court, Brown or Wilson?

Barboursville, Ky., April 16.—The circuit court began Monday morning. For a time it was doubtful who would act as judge, Judge Henry Wilson or Judge Brown. When time for opening court came, Judge Brown took the seat, and a few minutes later Judge Wilson appeared with a certificate from the election commissioners and signed by Beckham. Brown refused to vacate. There are several murder cases set for this term of court, among them being that of Dea and Wiley Baker, the Clay county feudists, Geo. Pole for the murder of Town Marshal Tom Roach on December 31, 1898.

SHE RODE IN JIM CROW COACH.

Colored Woman Sues the L. & N. for $10,000, Alleging That Rude White Men Entered Her Car.

Louisville, Ky., April 10.—Suit for $10,000 damages was entered by Winnie Smith, colored, against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Co. for an alleged violation of the colored coach law. The plaintiff says that on April 3, last, she boarded one of the defendant's trains at Hardstown, being a first-class passenger.

She says she took a seat in the colored coach, and that five or ten white men entered the coach with a string of fish. She says that they smoked, drank whisky and cursed, and that her protests were ignored by the conductor and other employees.

No Longer in Contempt.

Louisville, Ky., April 10.—John Rohman, jr., the juror in the election cases, was dismissed from the charge of contempt in the federal court. He was accused of leaving the other jurors and visiting Hasselbeck's saloon, where two of the men accused of election frauds were at work.

Woman Found Beaten to Death.

Campton, Ky., April 10.—Ballard Baker and his wife left their father's house just after dark to visit a friend. She was found dead in the road next morning with her brains eaten out. Baker was arrested and is now in jail. He denies any knowledge of the murder. He had blood on his clothes.

Fire From a Defective Flue.

Richmond, Ky., April 10.—The residence of Richard Clark, near Cottonsburg, this county, together with most of the contents, burned. Defective flue. Loss, $2,000; insurance, $1,500. Mr. Clark recently moved here from Cincinnati, where he was connected with the Union Stock yards.

Stabbed His Daughter's Lover.

Waddy, Ky., April 10.—Ben Shouse, a farmer, lectured his daughter because she stayed out late with two lovers. One of them, A. R. Long, began beating him over the head with a cane. Shouse then stabbed Long three times, inflicting a fatal wound.

Killed a Little Tot.

Campton, Ky., April 10.—While some young folks were taking a pleasure ride on a tram car they lost control of the car, and it ran over the 2-year-old child of M. M. Shackelford, killing it instantly. Those on the car leaped. None of them was seriously injured.

Aged Man Kills Himself.

Hodgenville, Ky., April 10.—P. A. McDowell committed suicide at his home near Buffalo, this county. He was 77 years of age and a prominent farmer. It is supposed that domestic trouble caused the deed.

Killed by a Train.

Princeton, Ky., April 10.—Louis Rucker, colored, 80 years old, while crossing the railroad track near the depot, was struck by the north-bound passenger train and instantly killed.
